The Collegiate Volleyball Update (CVU.com) is pleased to announce that Morehead State senior Ellie Roberson has been selected as the CVU.com National Player of the Week for Oct. 8 through Oct. 14

The next night, the senior did it again, coming through with her second-straight career match, this time hammering 32 kills on .500 hitting as the Eagles downed Tennessee Tech in four. The victories kept Morehead State perfect in the OVC and continued a 14-match winning streak.

A 6-2 right side hitter from Louisville, Ky., Roberson turned in back-to-back career matches in a pair of victories as the Eagles continued their tear and stayed undefeated in Ohio Valley Conference play.

For the week, Roberson averaged 6.67 kills per set on .464 hitting. She also added seven digs and four blocks. The Ohio Valley leader in kills at 4.28 per set, the right side earned her second consecutive OVC Offensive Player of the Week honor and her third this season. She is the first player from Morehead State to earn the CVU.com weekly honor and just the second from the Ohio Valley Conference.

With Morehead State down 2-0 at Jacksonville on Friday, Roberson led the way in the rally, turning in what was then her career-best offensive match as she drilled 28 kills with just three errors to hit .431 in the 3-2 comeback victory.
